

Assisted Living (Residential Care Facility)		Assisted Living facilities are designed for those who need assistance, but do not require skilled nursing. These facilities do not accept traditional Medicare or Medicaid, but some accept Medicaid Assisted Living Waivers, available through the Area Agency on Aging. Be sure to check with the admissions representative at the facility to see what their fees and payment options are.

Independent Living		Independent living is for individuals who do not need assistance with activities of daily living. These options sometimes offer onsite amenities like a fitness center, socialization opportunities, or additional support resources. Some options in Clark County provide subsidized rent for older adults.
